States that the pension of late Gulam Hussain Khan may be continued in the joint names of the petitioner Rahima Bi & Kabina Bi. The DC Mysore in forwarding the report of enquiry made by the Treasury Officer, recommends that in consideration of their poor condition, the pension of ₹3/- may be sanctioned jointly in the names of the petitioner Rahima Bi the wife of late Gulam Hussain & her neice (widowed) Kabina Bi

Whether the continuance of the pension should be decided upon, it is better that it is registered in the name of Rahima Bi for the support of herself and her niece Rasuna Bi & the pension is granted in their joint names it may be inconvenient to receive it after the death of Rahima Bi a life grant & its Continuance is strictly inadmissible. In view however, of the advanced age & helpless condition of the widow, pension of Rs 5 may be sanctioned for her life. It is usual to make some reduction in the amount of pensions when life grants are revived & continued. No consideration was shown to Abdul Karim, when a portion of his mother's pension was sanctioned only to one of her sons, namely, Gulam Hussain Khan, the petitioner's deceased husband. Accordingly Abdul Karim's daughter Rasuneebi mentioned in the D/C's letter need not be given any share of Gulam Hussain Khan's pension now. As, however, Rasuneebi is stated to be living with the petitioner, she will be benefited to some extent by the continuance of a pension of Rs 5 to the petitioner. Please put up a draft accordingly.

The 4th has a son by name Gulam Bastagir, now an Assistant teacher in the normal school Jeypore The Government has no objection to the pension being continued in the name of his aunt the petitioner for the benefit of herself and Kasimaber the widowed daughter of his uncle Abdul Kareem referred to above

It is also learnt that the deceased has left no other property on which the helpless widows may depend upon for their Sustenance.
